Poll watchers must sit in designated area behind entrance table or in the voting area and cannot hinder or impede the entrance or exit by voters.

If the poll watcher is not able to hear the name of the voter, they must ask the presiding officer (do not interfere with the voter's check-in process).

Four chairs are available on a first come first serve basis. If more than four poll watchers are present the four available spaces will be split equally by party.

If poll watchers need to be reminded more than once to follow these written rules, then they will be asked to leave the polling place for the day.

I agree to follow the poll watcher policy as outlined above:
